Filcro Media Staffing

On this page, Filcro Media Staffing exhibits diverse case histories of executive search assignments across multiple media platforms and geographics.

The firm's executive search expertise is focused to facilitate the recruitment needs of the media and broadcasting industries, as well as Fortune 50-500's with global media interests.

Each case history exhibits recruitment within context of a client company's business goals. Media industry nomenclature is utilized to normalize language for all of Filcro Media Staffing's recruitment profiles. Managers to CXO level executives of publicly traded media conglomerates, TV Networks, stations, publishers, global news organizations, Fortune 50-500, governments and even start-ups backed by investment banks and private equity are a few of the firm's clients.

When not deemed confidential; the firm is verbose in documenting identification, vetting, recruitment, attraction, relocation and acclimation. In some instances we will document the executive's career progress when tasked with a succession plan.

Industry Advertising

Filcro Media Staffing recruits many media sales, media sales support and advertising sales executives annually. As of Feb 2018 we will stop posting national account executive, and national sales manager roles unless they are truly unique. Thank you for understanding as 2018 is extremely busy for our media sales recruitment group.
